MASS MEETING OF GERMANS AT THE STADE

a sgitated during the past few weeks on the subject of the Sunday law, on account of vague rumors that an effort would be made on the part of the Sabbath Committee and others to secure the passage of a more stringent law than the one now in existence. It appears that a committee of leading German citizens visited Albany re-cently for the purpose of obtaining the repeal of this law. cently for the purpose of obtaining the repeal of this law.

Fursuant to a call published extensively in the various forman papers, a mass meeting was held yeaterday afternoon at the Stadt Theatre, in the Bowery, for the purpose of discussing the subject. The parquette, the paterre and the galleries were on tirely filled by a respectable looking and well dressed assembly, composed almost entirely of Gormans. The number of porsons in attendance probably amounted to two or three thousand. The proceedings were opened by an everture, performed by the orchestra of the Stadt theatre. Mr. Andreas Lutz called the meeting to order, and ou motion, Mr. L. Naumann took the chair. A number of secretaries and vice-presidents were appointed.

Resolved, That we the people assembled here in mass secting, do hereby respectfully and carnoutly petition the onerable the Legislature of the state of New York to repeat anong toll of the laws of 1801, entitled "An act to preserve as within peace and order on the first day of the week, com-sonly called Sunday;" also so much of section 21 of chapter 9. of section 21 of chapter 62t of the laws of 187, and of section 42 of chapter 62t of the laws of 187, and of section 42 of chapter 62t of the laws of 187, and of section 42 of chapter 62t of the law and parts f law are decomed a great prievance—in the present assuince, in that we request our representatives in the Legislaure to se all their influence to have such law and parts of law re-caled.

and that we request our representatives in the Legislature to need diver influence to have such law and parts of law repealed.

These resolutions were adopted by an unanimous vote. Several speakers proceeded to address the assembly in the German language.

The first speaker fintroduced was a Mr. Guccarring, of the Social Turn Verein. He proceeded to assert the right of free speed (serammanans reals). In analyzing the question in view, he contended that the opponents of this unjust law were not composed merely of a set of "rumsoliers," as had been maliciously stated; while, on the other side, the cry is favor of the observious laws were raised to create and support Similay functions. It would not be gainstyed that the greatest crinces were committed with the libble in the hand. It had been stated that the repeal of the Sanday law by means of a free press and by free speech, even if the remail should be a thirty years war. (Applause.)

Mr. Whil You Germander remarked that the design of the meeting was to protest against tyranny, and, in the name of the constitution of the United States, against any legislation in regard to religious matters and matters of conclosine. (Gedanken Zeeng.)

1. Kons made some statements in reference to the committee which had proceeded to Albany, and which was composed of Messrs. A. Lutz, George Sanor, Otto Chemor. The committee had received the assurance that at least certain amendments and material modifications would be made; but now far they would reach could not be atsted. Certain it was that some of the legislator had entirely changed their views on the subject now that the people, in a majority, were against the Sunday law.

AN INCOMMARY CAUGHT. - On Saturday morning, between three and four o'clock, officer E. Wilday, of the Fifteenth precinct, saw a woman come out of the area of house No. 179 Laurens street, and pass into the adjoining alley. Into Laurens etreet, and pass into the adjoining alley. Immediately afterward he discovered a light in the basement, and found a quantity of fiult, and the basement door on fire. He quickly extinguished the flaures, and then made search for the person he saw leave the profises. Fresh footprints were found in the area and half of the rear building, and on entering the room cocupted by Ellen Minor, they also found several fresh marks of a bare foot upon the floor. On mesoring the foot prints, they were found to correspond to the size of Ellen's feet. A bottle containing a small perton of fluid was found in her room. It is said she use condless for light, and that she has no use for fluid whatever. Officer Wilday arrested the auspected party, and conveyed her before Justice Councilly, at Jeierson Market Police Court. The magnificate committed the accuract to await the Fire Marshal's investigation. It also appears that an attempt to set the to the opposite building. Black Republican Mob in Elirabeth City, R. J.

[From the Newark Journal, March 1]
On Wednesday evening considerable excitement was caused in Enzabeth by the appearance of a large crowd before the house occupied by the mother-in-law of Captain Architegid Gracie, Jr., late of the United States Army, whom that officer is visiting, having lately arrived from Florida. The gathering first proceeded to disturb the peace of the neighborhood, by perferming an unmelodious serenade upon fish horns, tin pans, &c. Several gentiemen withm, astonished at the unusual tunnit, threw up the windows for the purpose of investigation, when, to the amazement and fright of all, a volley of Roman candle balls was discharged directly into the drawing rooms. Fortunately, no serious injury was sustained by any person, and effective measures were at once taken to fasten the dours and shutters, so that no entrance could be accomplished from without. After indulging to their hearts' content in disorderly conduct, the crowd burnt an enlipy of Captain Gracie, upon which was the following placard:—

Yesterday morning the following handbill was

Yesterday morning the following handbill was found conspicuously posted throughout the town:—
PROCLAMATION BY AN INDIGNAMY PROPLE—A TRAITOR BY ELERANTE.—Whereas, it specars from reliable information that one Archibald Gracie, Jr., late in command of a bend of thieves, took possession of fort Morgan, on the Guif coast, and known to be a traitor to his downty; he, the said Gracie, having red at the public crib, and having been educated at West Point at the expense of the government of the United States, is now daily insuling the good citizens of Bilizabeth by his presence among them.

Now, be it known, that we, the propie of Elizabeth, with a firm determination on our part to meen the insuli offered to our national flag by the cownril; traitor, do hereby, with a hearly good will, give him, the said Archibald Gracie, Jr., it will, you hours notice to evacuate the loyal city of Elizabeth; otherwise he will be donated a suit of clothing not set down in the programme.

It will be remembered that Captain Gracie did seize Fort Morgan, on the Guif coast of Florita, some few weeks since, as stated in the ill-advised proclamation, but the statement that he had, left the city is without foundation. The captain, we learn, has no notion of leaving. The statement, too, that 'all parties were united in the demonstration' is equally absured. The nob. it is understeed, was composed entirely of black republicans, led on by a prominent member of that party. Men of all parties agree in denouncing the course of persecution taken by the lawriess band, whose intolerance is based solely upon political grounds.

On Thursday evening Sheriff Reynolds, of Union county, called out two companies of militia, to assist in quelling any riot or discreterly attempts that might be made in connection with the case of Captain Gracie.

The excitement attending this outrageous affair has now entirely subsided, and the leaders of the most 'respectable' members of the republican party of the piaco, are now heartily ashamed of their conduct. Captain Grac

Sheriff Reynolds made the requisition on General Whitehead for the military, at the request of a number of leadness distance. They were not "under arms," but held themselves in readiness in case their services were needed to quell any disturbance. The companies were the sarsified Guard, Captain Whelm, and Washington Rifics, Captain Lutz. Much indignation is expressed in every quarter in regard to the folly and wickedness of the whole proceeding, which has served to cast diagrace upon the reputation of the usually quiet old town of Elizabeth. It is hoped the authorities of the city will have courage enough to inquire into the matter, and bring the guilty parties to punishment.

FUNERAL OF MR. ARTHUR WOODS.—The funeral services of this worthy gentleman, who was well known in politiof this worthy gentleman, who was well known in political circles, took place at two o'clock yesterday afternoon, from his late residence, No. 87 Last Eleventh street. Mr. W. occupied the position of member of Assembly in the State Legislature for two years, we believe, and was quite a favorite with the young democracy of the Seventeenth ward. At the time of his decease he was only in the 321 year of his age. The attendance of friends was numerous and respectable, and a large train of carriages followed the remains to Caivary Cemetery, where the deceased was interred with the solemn rites of the Catholic Church.

one of the most meritorious institutions which has been cetablished of late years in our metropolis. It was opened about three years ago, and in s'at brief time has effected much good. The object of the House of the Good Shephe rd is the reform of the outcast females of Good Shepherd is the reform of the outcast females of stelety, for whom that same society has the least commiscration. Fe this truly Christian work the good and relif-sacrificing sisters devote their lives, seeking not the praises of men for their reward, but laboring from a higher and purer motivo. It is to assist them in their charitable undertaking that a fair is to be held in the early part of noxt mouth in frying fall. It is an enterprise in which Protestants as well as Catholics will assist, for no distinction is made on the ground of religion between those who apply for admission to the Heuse of the Good Shephers.

DEDICATION OF THE NEW DUTCH REPORMED CHURCH IN Therry-rottem School.—The new edifice of the congregation lately worshipping in the Dutch Reformed church in Broome street, was dedicated with due selemnity yes terday forenoon. The building, which is situated in Thirty-fourth street, near highth avenue, was densely crowded upon the occasion, and extra accommodations had rowded upon the occasion, and extra accommodations had to be provided for the large number of people in attendance. The opening prayer was made by the Rev. H. B. Stryker, who also read appropriate selections from the Scriptures. Chancellor Ferris followed in prayer, after which the Rev. Feter Stryker, the pester, delivered the dedicatory sermon, taking for his text:—Esra 16, 18—"And the children of Israel and the priests and the lovites and the rest of the children of the equivity kept the dedication of this house of God with joy." He concluded by reciting the dedication service according to the rival of the Butch Reformed church, the people all rising. Chancellor Ferris then made an address in which he took eccasion to compliment the congregation for their possession of a heautiful house of worship, and congratulated them upon the success that had attended their labors. A munificent collection was taken up, and the exercises closed with the becediction. The church is built in the ornamenta Gothic style, with Nova Scotian stone facing, and with towers at each side of the front 30 feet high, and cost $50,000. It is 71 feet wide by 100 feet deep, and is capable of accommodating 1,000 persons. A commodicus lecture room, which also serves the purposes of a Sunday schooroom, is situated in the basement, and the organ gallery is apart by itself. The sale of pows commeaces on Tuesday not.

It is nothing but the sight of the Prussian menor-war which are here and at Jeddo that keeps the Japanese where they are. A great change was noticed in their conduct towards the Americans after the Niagara left. They would take a, European across the ferry or not, just as they pleased.

There is scarcely a night that we do not hear of a European being stopped, by a lantern and a sword thrust under his eyes, when waking out in the nighttime.

Everything that lives and moves and has a being belongs to the Japanese government. The system of revenue is carried to such an extent here that no one would believe for a moment the beauty state of morals which results from endeavors to derive money to support the government.

It is the foulest blot upon the Japanese character, and worse than anything that ever was known or heard of in the civilized world. Old sea captains, who have often been among the South Sea Islands, declare that they have never, in point of moral degradation and theastimes, seen the Japanese character equalled, especially that in Yokahama.

What American lady supposes that the Japanese Embassy was sent out by money derived from the sale of young girls, by the government, for infamous purposes, which is one of the main seurous of its revenue? Yot such, I am informed, is the case.

Women's position secially here is no higher than that of brutes. They are bought and sold just as publicly, and more generally than any other article or commodity in Japan.

The resolution which passed the Assembly of the Cultifornia Legislature early in the week, recommending the Crittenden compromise plan to the patriotic support of the Douglas and Breckinride members of the Legislature, a still under consideration in the Senate. It was drawn up by General Denver, and is advocated by a portion of both wings of the democracy as a basis for reorganizing that party in California. The proposition in the Senate is to strike out the names of Douglas and Reckinridge and then endorse the simple Crittenden plan.

Several attempts to pass the Senate resolution

Doughs and Breckinridge and then endorse the simple Criticoden plan.

Several attempts to pass the Senate resolution for a joint committee to elect a United States Senator on the 20th have failed, and the Doughs democrats have concuded to nominate a Senatorial candidate if possible, and endeavor to get a joint convention afterwards. If the strength of that party can be concentrated on one candidate it will probably be easy to produce the four or five votes needed to call a convention and elect from either the republicans or the Breckinridge democrats, according as the candidate is of Northern or Southern predilection. The Doughas men held a caucus at Sagramento last night. All the members were present. Two ballots were taken for United States Senator, and on McPongall 15, necessary to a choice, 28. Mesars. Leet and Walded declined to vote. The caucus adjourned to meet this evening.

The Late Post Office Defalcation.

The law argument in the Fowler Post Office case has been brought to a close. A true idea of the position of the government in relation to the verdict of the case has been brought to a close. A true idea of the position of the government in relation to the verdict of the jury may be gathered from the following closing points of Judge Roosevelt:—

1. The verdict on the issues should be set aside as contrary to law and contrary to evidence, and a new trial ordered, or an action at law on the bond to be instituted by the United States against Fowler, Law and Conover, in the Circuit Court of this circuit, so that the government may be chabled, by writ of error, if so advised, to take the sense of the Suprease Court on the grave questions involved in the controversy.

2. Fowler, the principal and joint obligator on the bond, not being named as a party to the suit, either plaintiff or defendant, the bill should be either dismissed on that ground or the hearing should be ordered to stand over to allow the proper amendment.

3. If there be any equitable ground for relieving Law and Conover from the payment of any part of the bond it can only extend to the one-third from which Charliel's name might have indemnified thom had he become a joint obligor with them. A party seeking equity [this is a bill in equity] must do equity.

4. No decree, if any, should be made against the United States to prevent them from prosecuting a common law section on the bond, or to deprive them of any remedy, except the extraordinary one by distress warrant, provided in the special statute of 1820.

The complaint should be dismissed on its face.

1. It aming that the bond was executed by the complainants, law and Conover, in blank; that it was so executed at the request, not of the government, but of Fowler, that it was delivered by them in that condition, not to a third person, but to Fowler, they not requiring their own names or that of the alleged co-surety, Charliek, to be first inserted in the body of the instrument; that they so "contrusted" it to Fowler upon the more "understanding and agreement" with him, and not with the government, that they been communicated to the government, that they lick.

2 The complainants, therefore, in their bill admit that they gave Fowier the means and the estensible authority of filling in the same of Charlick, or of omitting it as he saw fit, and of delivering the bond to the government in either form at his option. They are consequently stopped by their own undisputed negligence from atlegting that he violated their private instructions. Their omission for more than eighteen menths, to make any laquiries of Fowler or Charlick or the government, or to give the government any intimation of the alleged understanding strengthens this catoppel, and with it is tantamount to a walver.

strengthens this catoppel, and with it is tantamount to a walver.

3. A verbal understanding between joint obligors cannot be admitted to vary the contents of the written instrument—especially against an obligee having no notice or suspicion of the alieged understanding, and without any effort made by either of the obligors to give such natice.

4. No procedent of binding authority can be produced in which it has been held that the joint maker of an obligation, whether note or bond, executed voluntarily in blank, may aliege as against a bona fide tolder advancing money on the faith of the security that the blank in it had been filled up by the co-obliger or promiser to whom he had entrusted it for that purpose, with a larger sum in amount, or a less number of names we sureties, than had been privately agreed upon or understood between him and the principal debtor.

On the contrary, it has been expressly decided by the highest court of the State that the linsertion of a larger sum than had been agreed upon—the same in effect precinally as the insertion of a losser number of sureties to divide among—is no defence in favor of a confiding or carcless surety against a bona fide holder of the instrument, laving no notice of the secret understanding and no reason to suspect its existence. Van Buser vs. Stowe, 21, New York, Rep. 531. This decision does not turn on any distinction between a note and bond.

We use such Balma as have no strife with Manusc or the Laws of Life; With blood our hands we never stain, Nor Folson mes to case their Pain.

Our Fallow, when all geodeses fills. Nor Fotson men to case their Pain.
Our Father—whom all goodsees file,
Frowides the means to cure all tile;
The simple Herbs, beneath our feet,
Well used, relieve our pains complete.
A simple Herbs, a simple Flower, Cull'd from the dowy Los—
Those, these shall speak with touching power
Of change and health to thes.

THE HARLOW ESTATE.

Its Beirs-Real and Pretended.

This is the title of a story communiced in the NEW YORK

LEDGER to day. It is from the pen of I. Hamilton Myers, Eq., and is the artistic delineation, by a professional man, of an actual instance of an attempt at situpendous fraud, accompanied with the most unnatural parennal tyranny and heartless trenchery. The adduction and long conceniment of the rightful heir, the persecution of his beautiful half alster Excity, and the unravelling of the foul pile of wrong by her lover, who was a iswayer, take an irresistible hold upon the reader's heart and imagination, and keep him deeply indirected to the end of the story.

The LEDGER for to day also contains more of Mrs. Br.

chie a fascinating story of "The Muse sugger," a continuation of Mr. Cobb's great "laie of Sea and Land," "Silverthorne," and the usual variety of sketches, editorials, answers and correspondents, &c., &c.

that the people, in a majority, were against the countries.

The meeting was also addressed by the Rev. Mr. Hares, who read some statistics making a comparison of crimes committed in different communities, with and without a Sunday law for their guidance, which clicited the remarkable fact that more crimes are committed where a Sunday law prevails.

Further addresses were made by Mesars. Charles Burgeler, Dr. Farrenc, editor of the Spaque, and Mr. Horamans, whereupon the meeting adjourned.

The Winter Prosence in Onco.—The present season is said, by those whose interest it is to keep booked up in such matters, to be an accordingly favorable one for the growth of the wheat crop. So far as we have neard, the wheat fields throughout Hocking county present a very flourishing appearance. Providence still scalles upon our land, nowethertanding the political treubies with which we are afflicted.
